VOLUME CVII.--NO. 162. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 7, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Nature's Way Is Best.

The function strengthening and tissue building plan of treating chronic, lingering and obstinate cases of disease as pursued by Dr. Pierce, is following after Nature's plan of restoring health.

He uses natural remedies, that is extracts from native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Black Cherry-bark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Stone root, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and throat troubles, and this "Discovery" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The above native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the cure not only of the diseases named above but also for indigestion, torpor of liver, or biliousness, obstinate constipation, kidney and bladder troubles and catarrh, no matter where located.

You don't have to take Dr. Pierce's say-so alone as to this; what he claims for his "Discovery" is backed up by the writings of the most eminent men in the medical profession. A request by postal card or letter, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little book of extracts from eminent medical authorities endorsing the ingredients of his medicines, will bring a little book free that is worthy of your attention if needing a good, safe, reliable remedy of known composition for the cure of almost any old chronic, or lingering malady.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid 1008-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.

COMPETENT JUDGES.

Beauty Doctors Endorse Herpicide.

Women who make a business of beautifying other women come pretty near knowing what will bring about the best results. Here are letters from two, concerning Herpicide:

"I can recommend Newbro's "Herpicide," as it stopped my hair from falling out; and, as a dressing it has no superior.

"(Signed.) Bertha A. Trullinger, "Complexion Specialist, "29½ Morrison St., Portland, Ore."

"After using one bottle of "Herpicide" my hair has stopped falling out, and my scalp is entirely free from dandruff.

"(Signed.) Grace Dodge, "Beauty Doctor, "195 Sixth St., Portland, Ore."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GRAVE CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA.

A dispatch from Kattowitz Prussian Silesia, says that 25 Cossacks surrounded a limekin at Miechow, in the Province of Kielce, Russian Poland, yesterday, on information that it was being used for the manufacture of bombs. As the Cossacks were forcing their way in a terrific explosion blew the kiln to pieces. Eight Cossacks were killed and five were wounded.

Rioting occurred yesterday among the employes of the government printing office, at Berlin, where the plates for the paper currency are engraved and printed. The men left their work and went into the courtyard of the building singing the "Marseillaise." Gendarmes and Cossacks were summoned and drove back the demonstrators into the building, where, after some parleying, they returned to work.

The reign of crime and terrorism is so great in Warsaw, that the police have decided to resign. A few days ago, as a measnre of protection against assassination by the revolutionists, the system of police beats was abandoned and the police were formed into patrols for mutual self-protection against bomb-throwing, etc. But this only made it easier for the terrorists to shoot them.

During the debate in the lower house of the Russian parliament yesterday on the Bialystok report an orthodox priest, Father Aranssieff, a radical member from the Dun province, fiercely denounced the policy of the government, which he declared, instead of being directed to pacify the county, seemed to be deliberately provoking anti-Jewish riots and every manner of class and race strife by the spread of proclamations against the Jews and revolutionists.

The debate on the Bialystok report in the lower house of parliament was adjourned until Monday to permit the consideration of the ministry's bill appropriating $25,000,000 for famine relief, which developed the sensation of the day, showing that the constitutional democrats have finally found a lever by which they hope to force the government to surrender control of the pursestrings, the vital object at which they have been aiming from the beginning.

Professor Hertzenstein, chairman of the committee which reported the bill, revealed the important fact that M. Kokovsoff, the finance minister, who appeared before the committee made no effort to conceal the desperate financial straits of the government. He informed the committee that the condition of the treasury was much worse than believed, and even impeached the figures given in this year's budget, made by M. Shipoff as conveying no adequate idea of the real state of affairs. He said the government was living far beyond its means, and agreed that it must retrench, but, he explained this could not be accomplished this year. Therefore, it was necessary to make a fresh loan to cover the famine relief.

Rescue of Balloonists.

After one of the most thrilling experiences of his life, James K. Allen, the veteran aeronaut, who left Providence, R. I., on Wednesday in a balloon, was rescued from drowning off Block Island by the crew of the fishing schooneer Frances V. Sylvesia Thursday morning and brought into Boston harbor in tow of the tug Clara E. Ula yesterday evening.

Mr. Allen ascended in his balloon from Providence in front of the Rhode Island statehouse, July 4, at 12:30 o'clock, in the presence of thousands of people and in the midst of a storm. The balloon was carried through Attleboro, where it bumped against a house and flagpole, breaking the latter.

Allen then lightened the balloon, which shot through a bank of heavy clouds. Here he lost his bearings and could not realize where he was until he passed over Provincetown and out to sea. This was at night. He let out 500 feet of rope, with a drag anchor, which held him about 100 feet above water. Twice the balloon ceme down to the surface of the sea, but Allen climbed into the network of ropes each time.

At dawn he saw a steamer nearby and shouted, but she kept on her course. A little later a tug and barges passed and the tug answered his hail, but was unable to keep up with the balloon. At 7:30 in the morning he saw the Sylvesia with two dories out. Men in one of the dories caught his drag rope and the other came to her help. The balloon dragged both along at a lively clip for a while, but was finally held and Allen slid down the rope into the boat.

The balloon was recovered undamaged.

Cruel Treatment to a Girl.

Abducted, held in slavery, beaten with a rawhide whip until her flesh was torn and bleeding, and finally sold at auction for $25, was the terrible story revealed yesterday by the finding of pretty Rosie Cohen, a seventeen-year-old girl who had been missing for two months from the home of her parents in New York. The girl, still bearing the marks of cruelty at the hands of the white slave owners upon her body, repeated her story, which she had told to Patrolman Byrnes early yesterday morning, when she appealed to him for protection, with added revolting details, when she appeared before Magistrate Baker, in the Harlem Police Court. With quivering lips she accused Joseph Ruggiero, a saloonkeeper of Mount Vernon, and Mrs. Lena Salino, with being responsible for her degredation. These two had been found and arrested within an hour after the girl had appealed to the patrolman. They were both held in $2,000 bail each for further examination on Monday, on the charge of abduction. The girl was sent to the House of Detention, although she begged pitiously to be released, saying that she would return to her parents if she were discharged. The detectives are now looking for two other men in the case. One of these men was with Rosie yesterday morning when she appealed to Byrnes. He fled when he saw the policeman. The girl came to this country from Russia, about two years ago. Up to two months ago she worked in a button factory. According to the girl's story, she was tied hand and foot in the daytime, cowhided when she rebelled, threatened with death if she revealed what occurred, and otherwise maltreated.

Proposed Island Fort

Plans for an artificial island midway between Capes Henry and Charles for the defense of Chesapeake Bay, Hampton Roads and all the rivers which empty into them will be modeled after the island fort Japan has constructed for the defense of Tokio, in case the Japanese government will permit Brigadier General John P. Story, U. S. A., former chief of artillery, to inspect the fortifications in Tokio harbor.

Brigadier General Story is now in Japan on leave and while in the Orient will make a special study of fortifications looking to the framing of plans for extensive fortifications in this country in accordance with the action of the joint Army and Navy Board on Fortifications.

The general scheme as outlined by the board for the defense of the Virginia Capes contemplates the installation of 14-inch guns on the proposed island between the two capes, as well as big guns on both Cape Henry and Cape Charles.

It is likely that the proposed island with its immense guns will be located much nearer to Cape Henry than to Cape Charles, as the water is shoal near Cape Charles. Between the capes the channel which can be navigated by large ships is only about five miles wide. The other water is so shoal that no defense of it is necessary. Consequently the island will doubtless be located near the middle of the deep channel.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 7, 1906.

IT IS AGAIN believed that the peace of the world is endangered by the unrest which prevails in the Egyptain Delta. Some, however, profess to see nothing grave in present conditions, but it is apparent that Great Britain will be compelled to put forth more of her strength for the control of Egypt. Nobody who has intelligently watched the drift of affairs in Africa and Asia for the last few years will question for a moment the accuracy of Sir Edward Grey's assertion that the recent attack upon British officers at Tantah, in the Delta, was much more than a sporadic and detached incident, of local origin; that it was a deliberate manifestation of a widespread spirit of fanaticism, which for some time has been growing in extent and intensity. Whether it is a racial or a religious fanaticism there may be some doubt. Perhaps it partakes of both natures. Certainly there has been of late much unrest among the non-European races, all the way from the northern Mongols to the southern Kaffirs, embracing Mongols, Hindoos, Malays, Filipinos, Arabs, Turks, Egyptians, Moors, Hottentots and Zulus. At the same time, there has been specially marked a recrudescence of Moslem antagonism toward christian nations. It seems probable that this latter spirit was the more direct and potent in the Tantah affair. The natives who without provocation attacked British officers with bludgeons, with deadly intent, were not Coptic fellaheen, but Moslems, and there has been some pretty confident tracing of the influences which led to that outrage back to the Turkish attempt to "rush" Egyptian territory in the Sinaitic peninsula. It was understood at that time that a Turkish propaganda, appealing to religious prejudices, had been conducted by the Turks among the Moslems of the Delta. Any considerable disturbance in Egypt would be doubly deplorable, because of the encouragement which it might give to the spirit of unrest and revolt in other eastern lands.

OWING to what they claim the unfavorable condition of the lumber business, manufacturers in the States of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolida have voluntarily determined to reduce their normal output 25 per cent. or more during July and August, or until present conditions improve. The manufacturers that have determined to curtail include members and non-members of the North Carolina Pine Association. It means that the total output for July and August will be reduced by approximately 50,000,000 feet. This is a lumber trust and should be taken in hand by the courts. The "unfavorable condition" has been brought about by the great advance the trust made in prices which stopped many people from building houses. Should a reduction in the price of lumber be made "conditions" would improve.

THE Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, which had its assessment in West Virginia raised from about $1,200,000 to $6,000,000, is protesting against the increase. Chickens come home to roost. It will be remembered that the B. & O. railroad company was mainly responsible shortly after the war for the loss to Virginia of the counties of Jefferson and Berkeley, having used its influence in having Confederate soldiers disfranchised and negroes enfranchised so that the former could not, and the latter could vote for the seding of those counties to West Virginia. The B. & O. lines run through those counties and the railroad company took part in Virginia being robbed of more of her territory so that the railroad would not have to pay taxes to Virginia to help pay the State debt.

MR. WILLIAM J. BRYAN will not regard the reception to be tendered him on his home-coming as an indorsement of his candidacy; he does not intend to stand in the light of other men who have rendered conspicuous service to the party and the country; he will not prosecute for breach of promise the State conventions which have prematurely named him if they should transfer their affections elsewhere, and, says the Philadelphia Record, he cannot spare two years time out of his life to sit on a stool and look pretty just at present, but desires to be in a position to think, say and do what he likes. The party, he says, is entitled to its most available man, and the question of availability cannot be determined so far in advance. The statement reflects great credit on Mr. Bryan, and shows how much sense he has.

SECRETARY HITCHCOCK'S war on the government land grafters continues with unflagging vigor. Former United States Surveyor General Meldrum, of the District of Oregon, has just been sentenced to pay fines aggregating $5,255 and to serve a term of three years in jail for conspiracy to fraud. When Col. Mosby was hot on the trail of the land grafters in the northwest he was suddenly recalled by President Roosevelt, who had sent him there to protect the government, and the reason of the recall has never been satisfactorily explained.

REPUBLICANS imagine that personal government is popular, and the keynote of the Congressional campaign is to be "Indorse the President." Theodore Roosevelt is to be the issue. Mr. Roosevelt is popular with the masses, but, as says the Philadelphia Record, he is not so overwhelmingly popular as some of the republicans imagine; and in any case he is not popular enough to take the place with the voters of all other issues.

THE ordinance limiting the number of saloons in Chicago after July 31 has become a law without Mayor Dunne's approval. When the law goes fully into effect the only way to increase the number of saloons will be to increase the population, which looks as though the Three Million Club might be behind it.

ACCORDING to the Hon. Bourke Cockran, what the country needs is fewer courts and more orstors. This is the reverse of the opinion entertained by the Virginia lawmakers.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, July 7.

Who wants the first United States bond to be issued to provide money for the construction of the Panama canal—No. 1 of the new issue of $30,000,000? Treasury officials expect some fancy bidding on this particular bond because of the historical interest it will have in the future. Bids on the bonds are coming in rapidly but at present they are from small prospective investors. The big banks have not yet come forward. They are waiting to figure their bids down to the last decimal. Every confidence is manifested at the Treasury Department that the issue will command a premium but there are as many opinions almost as their are officials as to what will be the amount of that premium. The best opinion is that they will sell between 103 and 104. The bond draws 2 per cent. interest.

When Senator Tillman made his last comments on the conference report on the railroad rate law and that feature of it which exempted pipe lines from the necessity of divorcing production from transportation, he predicted that Frank S. Monnett, former attorney general of Ohio, recently connected with the Interstate Commerce Commission's investigation of Standard Oil affairs, was about to be separated from that honorable and important position. Senator Foraker interrupted to inquire how he happened to know, and Senator Tillman replied that his assertion was based on persistent rumor. At the Interstate Commerce Commission it was admitted today that Mr. Monnett is no longer connected with the work. "The service for which Mr. Monnet was engaged," said chairman Knapp, "has been performed, he has been paid in full, and his connection has terminated." He denied that there was any other reason for the step and expressed himself as well satisfied with the character of service performed by Mr. Monnett in connection with the conduct of the oil hearings in Ohio. Chairman Knapp added that the Standard Oil investigations were drawing to a close and that the preparation of a report might soon be begun. There will be another hearing on the subject in this city on the morning of July 12.

In compliance with the recently enacted naval appropriation bill the Secretary of the Navy has sent a circular letter to all the principal shipbuilding concerns of the country asking them to submit plans and specification for the biggest battleship ever built for this or any other country, which it is proposed by Congress to have constructed next year. Secretary Bonaparte has also directed the Naval Board on Construction to submit to him preliminary plans not later than Nov. 1st 1906 which, with the accompanying specifications, will be sufficiently full to furnish the information desired by Congress before the actual appropriation for this ship is made.

Secretary Wilson of the Agriculture Department, accompanied by Solicitor McCabe, Dr. Melvin, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, and Dr. Dorset, chief of the biochemic division, will leave for Chicago at 5:40 this afternoon to begin a personal inspection of Chicago packing institutions. "Before drafting the regulations for the enforcement of inspection law, I want to see what is going on for myself," said Secretary Wilson today. "My Chicago stay may run through two weeks. I have not mapped out any itinerary."

The office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury is busily engaged in putting into effect the omnibus public building law recently passed by Congress. Advertisements are being sent out at the rate of 20 or 25 a day asking for bids on sites for public buildings authorized. In those cases where sites have already been secured and appropriation has been made for the erection of a building the office is preparing the necessary plans. Recognizing the urgent need for public buildings in Toledo, Ohio, Des Moines, Iowa, and Atlanta, Georgia, above all others contained in the new public buildings act, Secretary of the Treasury Shaw today authorized Supervising Architect Taylor of the Treasury to prepare the plans for these buildings in advance of all the others.

Secretary Wilson, of the Agriculture Department, today directed that notice be sent to all of the railroads, concerning the new law permitting cattle to be hauled continuously for thirty-six hours, without stoppage for rest and food. The old law fixed the limit at twenty-eight hours. "At the expiration of thirty days," the inspectors will be directed to report all violations and these will be transmitted to the Department of Justice for institution of suit and the collection of penalties. Under the old law, the department pursued the plan of allowing the railroad companies to contess judgment and pay the minimum penalty of $100 per case. This practice will not be followed in the enforcement of this law."

According to official reports received at the War Department from Gen. Frederick Funston, commanding the Department of California, he does not think much more of the average officer serving at the court martial than Assistant Secretary of the Navy Newberry, who recently called down shame upon the members of two trial boards in Gen. Funston's department that he dissolved it at once, and reported the fact to the War Deparment. Gen. Eunston concludes by saying: "It is evident that the officers who composed the court, or a majority of them, are not qualified to perform the important duty devolved upon them, and the court is hereby dissolved."

Governor General Ide of the Philippines today cabled the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department as follows with regard to the cholera situation in Manila: "W. H. Hart died of colera July 4th. There is a decided improvment in the cholera situation. For the 24 hours ending 8 a. m., July 7th, 18 cases. Daily average dropped about one-half. No further increase in provinces. Practically all cases above mentioned were found dead." It is stated by the Bureau of Insular Affairs officials that this is the only report of death by cholera of an American which has been received since the reports of the recent outbreak of the epidemic.

Two cablegrams were received by the Navy Department this morning from Commander Templin M. Potts, commandant of the U. S. naval station at Guam, telling of the grounding in the harbor there on a reef of the army transport Thomas.

Saxony is almost as proficient in raising matrimonial trouble as the United States, according to Consul E. L. Harris, of Chemnitz. About 37,000 marriages were contracted in that kingdom in 1905, and nearly four in every 100 were annulled, so he reports. "It is difficult and costly to procure a divorce," says the consul, "else the number would be greater. It is claimed that the indirect cause of the great majority of domestic troubles is the increased aggravated condition which surround the struggle for existence in commereial and industrial life."

Sir Joseph George Ward, premier and postmaster-general of New Zealand, had a conference with Postmaster-General Cortelyou at the Postoffice Department today on matters of interest to the respective postal administrations. Sir Joseph was accompanied by Mr. Gray, the permanent head of the postal administration in New Zealand, and Mr. Wilson, of the same department. Mr. Cortelyou assured his visitors of the deep interest felt by the American postal administration in the several suggestions that had been made looking to improved servire between the two countries and states that for several months he had been giving serious consideration to the general subject. After the conference the visitors were shown through the department and were particularly interested in the workings of the dead letter office and in the exhibits in the postal museum. Sir Joseph and his party leave this afternoon for San Francisco, from which point they sail on the 12th for home.

The Navy Department this morning received a dispatch from Rear-Admiral W. H. Brownson, on board an overland train at Banff, Canada, bound for Puget Sound, Washington, telling of the sudden death last night on the train from heart disease of Naval Constructor Joseph W. Woodward, U. S. N. Captain Woodward was a member of the naval board of inspection and survey and was bound for the Pacific coast to attend the trial trip of the newly constructed battleship Nebraska. His death will be a great loss to the navy.

News of the Day.

Joseph Bradley, colored, was hanged at Ellicott City, Md., yesterday for the murder of John Redwine, another negro, on March 28.

Rev. Dr. L. P. Mercer, the originator of the Parliament of Religion, which was one of the features of the Chicago World's Fair of 1893, died of heart disease at his home in Cincinnati yesterday.

Whether the ice trade of Washington is controlled by a trust will be determined by the grand jury in an investigation which it will begin next Monday. The investigation will be conducted by District Attorney Baker.

Four men were killed, another fatally injured, and three persons seriously burned by the explosion yesterday of a large gasoline tank on the second floor of the boiler house of the Cosendai Dye Work, in Saginaw, Mich.

For the murder of the white crew of the schooner Harry Berwind, off the North Carolina coast last October, Henry Scott, a Baltimore negro, was executed yesterday afternoon in the New Hanover county jail in North Carolina.

Sir Joseph Ward, new premier of New Zealand, lunched with President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay yesterday and conferred with the President upon the development of a reciprocity sentiment between the United States and New Zealand.

A hail storm at Valencia, Spain, yesterday killed one child and injured 50 persons. Hailstones as big as oranges smahed the roofs of houses, causing the inhabitant to take refuge in the cellars. The crops in many districts were destroyed and great distress prevails.

Mrs. Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw, sailed from Liverpool yesterday on her return to New York. The widow of Stanford White was paid yesterday by the Equitable Life Assurance Society $149,040, which was the value of a single policy Mr. White had carried on his life for a number of years.

Sam Parker, a college athlete, of Helenwood, Tenn., was shot and fatally wounded when he alighted from a Cincinnati Southern train at Helenwood, last night, by Judge J. E. Fulton, a prominent attorney and politician of Scott county. The cause of the tragedy is reported to be jealously over a woman.

Joseph Ayers and Oscar Underwood, sheet-iron workers, fell 100 feet with a great iron smokestack at the Front street pumping station in Cincinnati yesterday, and were fatally injured. Both men died soon after being taken to a hospital. The men were on the inside of the stack, when the big tube, four feet in diameter, toppled over. When the stack struck the ground the impact was so great that the men bounded high in the air as though they had been shot out of a cannon. Their skulls were fractured.

Mrs. Emma Crumbaugh, thirty-four years old, living on the Canal road, was struck by a car of the Cabin John Bridge line, near Hayes' Crossing, at 9:30 last night and instantly killed. She was hurled twenty feet and her neck was broken. Hayes' Crossing is two miles beyond Georgetown, near the third trestle on the Cabin John Bridge road. It is presumed by the police that Mrs. Crumbaugh, in attempting to cross in front of the car, was struck by the fender and killed.

It was learned last night in Denver, that the socialist party of Colorado held a convention in that city on the Fourth of July and nominated a full State ticket, headed by William D. Haywood, secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, now in prison in Idaho for alleged complicity in the assassination of former Gov. Steunenberg. Mr. Martin declared that the working classes of Colorado would rally to Haywood and that he would be elected. Concluding he said: "And if they refuse to release him, we may feel impelled to march to Idaho and take our chief executive by force, if necessary, out of the teeth of the dogs of capitalism, and carry him in triumph to our Statehouse."

Virginia News.

The third annual meeting of the Virginia State Farmer's Institute will be held at Roanoke next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Porter, a native of Loudoun county, for many years a resident of the Louise Home, in Washington died Thursday at that institution, aged 90 years.

The Virginia apple crop, it is said, will show not more than 20 per cent of red fruit this season, while the green varieties will drop as low as from 10 to 15 per cent.

Sergeant Frank B. Blunt, who was seriously wounded in the sham battle at Chase City the Fourth, is now resting in comparative ease at the Retreat for the Sick in Richmond.

Mr. George Lee, a well known Clarke county farmer, and Mrs. Carrie Barr, formerly of Frederick county, were married Thursday at the parsonage of the Baptist Church at Berryville.

The railroad "Y" at Front Royal will be rearranged and an effort will be made to do away with the sharp curves which have been more or less responsible for a disastrous wreck or two at that place.

The large plaining mill belonging to Printz & Son, located near Stonyman, Page county, was totally destroyed by fire Thursday night together with about 100,000 feet of lumber, entalling a loss of about $5,000.

Mr. Joseph Button, the newly elected insurance commissioner of Virginia, will ask the Court of Appeals for a mandamus to compel the Corporation commission to administer the oath of office and accept his bond.

The State corporation commission yesterday concluded its freight rate hearing so far as the Southern Railway is concerned, with the testimony of Comptroller Plant. The hearing of the protest of the Norfolk and Western read will be taken up Monday.

Shocked at the appalling death rate of Richmond, as shown by national statistics on the subject, the newly elected health board of the city will issue an order requiring the fumigation of carriages, hearses and other vehicles used at all funerals as a preventive against possible contagion.

Prof. Noah K. Davis, who for 31 years has filled the chair of moral philosophy in the University of Virginia, will accept the invitation of the Carnegie foundation to become a beneficiary, and his resignation as head of the school of moral philosophy will soon be laid before the visitors of the university.

Superintendent Eggleston puts the number of new high schools established this year in Virginia at 150. He says the school fever is sweeping over the State and the greatest need at this time is capable high school principals to take charge of them. He is greatly elated at the growth of the movement.

Thomas G. Moncure, aged 70 years, died Thursday evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Wallace, in Stafford county, of heart trouble. He was a son of the late Judge R. C. L. Moncure, of that county. He served the Confederacy in the Ninth Virginia Cavalry. His widow, one daughter and one son survive him.

P. V. DeGraw, fourth assistant postmaster general, has issued a statement concerning the number of new free delivery routes that have been established throughout the United States during the last year. In the ten congressional districts of Virginia 1,689 petitions for new routes have been referred to the department. Of this number 749 have received adverse reports. On July 1, 1905, there were in operation in the State 781 routes, and 836 on July 1, 1906.

Addicks Declared a Liar.

Although recently beaten to a standstill, John Edward Addicks rallied his State committeemen around him at Dover, Del., yesterday and made an attempt to disrupt the harmony movement in his party headed by Allee. The committee went Allee's way, 10 to 8, for immediate and unconditional coalition with the regulars. Pandemonium brooke loose during the meeting, and there was a hot interchange of words between Addicks and Caleb Layton, who was leading Allee's fight for immediate coalition. Addicks accused Layton of handing the party over to their enemies because he was bought in the committee with an office. "You're a liar!" shouted Layton. "John Edward Addicks, you're a liar!" Addicks raised his voice and reached his fist out toward Layton, saying: "I a liar? You're a liar! Liar is too good a name for you!" At this point a general fist fight was almost precipitated. All the members were on their feet. Allee rapped for order and shouted: "You must come to order!" "What," cried Addicks, "you call me to order! You little cur! Take that back!" Addicks friends surrounded him and prevented a general mix-up by sitting him down in his seat.

J. P. Hagerman, of Los Angeles, Cal., won second place in the broad jump in the international championship contests at London today.

Today's Telegraphic News

Sheriff After Rockefeller.

Findlay, O., July 7.—Sheriff E. T. Groves, armed with Judge Banker's warrant for John D. Rockefeller and other Standard Oil Company officials, has gone to Cleveland and, it is understood, has made preparations for an indefinite stay there. It is expected he will remain as long as there is any hope that the oil magnate will return to that city. Since Judge Banker decided that the probate court has jurisdiction to try Rockefeller and his trust under the State Valentine anti-trust law, discussion has been general as to the probable outcome in case he is brought to Findlay. Under the law punishment is a fine of from $50, to $50,000 or imprisonment of from six to twelve months, or both. One significant feature of the case is the statement that the local prosecutor is being assisted by evidence and advice from the attorney general's office in Columbus. This makes the issue a State fight. Prosecutor David hints that when the grand jury meets in September he will spring surprises that will be sensational. It has been announced that Rockefeller will return from Europe late this month.

Textile Situation in Fall River.

Fall River, Mass., July 7.—An important development in the textile situation here was the announcement last night that a general advance in wages will be given at the mills of the Fall River Iron Works Company on Monday next. Notices were posted in the seven mills of the large plant, informing the operatives of the proposed change. The notices did not name the percentage of the proposed increase and when superintendent Hathaway was questioned concerning this point, he said that the company had not figured how great the advance would be. The Fall River Iron Works, which are controlled by M. C D. Borden, of New York, employ 5,000 persons. All of these will be affected by the advance, but it is understood the 1,000 employes of the American Printing Company, also controlled by Mr. Borden, will not participate. Since last October Mr. Borden's mills have been paying the scale which existed in all of the mills here previous to July 1903 and was restored by the Manufacturers' Association last Monday.

Drowned Her Babe.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 7.—Admitting that she murdered her 4-weeks-old baby, but declaring that she was goaded to the crime by the abuse and violence of her husband, Mrs. Mary Paulski, of this city, presented a pitiful figure at the hearing before Mayor Fred C. Kirkendall today. She said her husband had suspected it was not his child, and that from the time it was born he kept ordering her to take it out of the house and frequently thrashed her severely. Finally rendered desperate by his abuse, she says that she threw it in the river one night, not knowing what else to do with with it. The woman was held without bail, and her case will go to the grand jury in September.

Killed by a Judge.

Knoxville, Tenn., July 7.—Samuel Parker, an attorney and college athlete of Helenwood, Tenn., was shot and fatally wounded when he alighted from a Cincinnati Southern train at Helenwood Thursday night by Judge J. E Fulton, a leading attorney and politician of Scott county. Parker died yesterday. He made an ante-mortem statement that he had been shot by Judge Fulton without provocation. It is said that recently Fulton accused Parker of commenting upon Mrs. Fulton, but that Parker emphatically denied having done so. He was one of the best known college athletes of the South, having played three years on the University of Tennessee baseball and football teams. Judge Fulton surrendered to a deputy sheriff yesterday.

Fire in a Crusher.

Camden, N. J., July 7.—Fire broke out at one o'clock this morning in a crusher at the plant of the United Coke and Gas Company, a subsidiary concern of the Public Service Corporation at the foot of Mount Vernon street, this city. It is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion of hot coke. The loss is estimated at $25,000, fully covered by insurance. The firemen are still fighting the flames and owing to the stubborn character of the sort of fire, will probably be obliged to remain there for some hours. One fireman was slightly hurt by a falling beam.

Grass Strangling Man to Death.

Waterbury, Conn., July 7.—Albert O'Connor, a conductor employed by the Bristol and Plainville Tramway Company, while walking through the woods the other day, picked a blade of grass and chewed it. A piece of it lodged underneath his tongue, causing an irritation which resulted in blood poisoning. O'Connor's throat is now slowly closing and at a consultation of physicians they pronounced the case hopeless. The man is slowly dying of strangulation.

Crew Rebels.

Vigo, Spain, July 7.—About 200 sailors of the Russian cruiser Terek, now at anchor in this harbor, rebelled today. A number of them, dressed in civilian's clothing, left the cruiser while the others were kept aboard by officers armed with revolvers. The members of the crew had previously tried to rebel when the Terek was at Suez, en route here.

War on Barmaids.

Cleveland, July 7. — Police Chief Kohler issued orders yesterday to arrest the owner of every saloon or cafe at which barmaids are employed. "Cleveland has hundreds of barmaids, and they must go," he said. "It is their fascinating smiles that often sell drinks." One arrest for a test case was made.

Priest Burned in Effigy.

Syracuse, July 7.—Rev. J. McGrath, a Catholic priest, of Baldwinsville, was publicly burned in effigy at that place Thursday night. All afternoon a lifesized figure in clerical garb hung in a tree, and at night it was taken down by a crowd and set fire to. Watching the burning embers, the crowd shouted such sentiments as "To hell with McGrath." The trouble started two weeks ago, when Father McGrath declined an invitation to attend the graduation exercises of the village high school, publicly stating that he would not allow any Catholics to attend if the exercises were to be opened with prayer by a Protestant minister, as had been planned. The matter was taken up by Bishop P. A. Ludden, of this city, who upheld the priest, declaring that the public school system is a scheme to clandestinely teach the Protestant religion.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 7.—The stock market continued strong and further gains were made. Buying was based on an unfounded report that J. P. Morgan had arrived in this city. The trading in the general list was quiet and without much significance. The only feature was some urgent covering of small shorts.

Hartje Divorce Plot.

Pittsburg, July 7.—An inkling was gained yesterday as to the prominence of the persons involved by the charges of conspiracy to blast the fair name and character of Mrs. Augustus Hartje, in connection with the divorce suit instituted against her by her millionaire husband and now being tried here. A leading business man of Allegheny and the cashier of an Allegheny bank will be named among the defendants in addition to Hartje and his bosom friend, John H. Welshons, and Hartje's negro coachman, Clifford Hooe. Back of the prosecution is the proprietor of one of the largest department stores in that end of the State. Informations have already been made against the accused men, it is understood, and warrants are in readiness for serving.

The next thrill in this case of thrills is expected to be furnished by the arrest of a young woman who will be charged with having forged the fervid letters introduced in evidence and purporting to have been passed between Mrs. Hartje and Madine, the coachman. The story of how Hartje secured these letters became public yesterday. It is to the effect that two detectives hired by Hartje got into Madine's room during his absence and robbed his trunk. On the witness stand Madine denied that his trunk had been robbed, having been asked this question by Attorney John Marren, for Hartje. He also denied the letters were ever in his possession. The libellant expects to put two detectives on the stand to testify how they got the letters.

The Thaw Case.

New York, July 7.—Intimations are heard today that the defense may have to change its present plans in the fight for the life of Harry Thaw, charged with the murder of Standford White, and instead of trying to prove emotional insanity will ask for the appointment of a commission to ascertain is Thaw is sane This sudden contemplated change, it is said, has been brought about by the complete failure of counsel for the defense to unearth any real evidence that White had sought to renew his relations with Mrs. Thaw after her marriage. In fact, no later than yesterday former Judge Olcott admitted that no evidence of that character had been found. Unless such evidence can be found, it robs the defense of any chance to plead justification or emotional insanity brought on by the fact that White was seeking to renew his former relations with Mrs. Thaw. The defense realized that it could not make a plea for justification because of any relationship that may have existed between Stanford White and Evelyn Nesbit before the Thaw marriage. The revelations that Thaw had employed many detectives to shadow White for many months robbed the defense again in the plea of justification. Mrs. Thaw visited her husband at the Tombs prison today. Little of interest developed in the visit. Counsel for both sides are examining information that is being gathered on the case.

Woman Who Gulped Diamond.

Omaha, Neb., July 7.—Unless the Supreme Court should intervene, Miss Mae Thomas's $350 appetite will, for the next five years, have to put up with a fare consisting principally of coarse bread, Irish stew and bean soup. When the woman, convicted of stealing a diamond by swallowing it, was brought into court yesterday she was quite composed. The motion for a new trial was overruled. Before sentence was pronounced Miss Thomas said: "Judge, I never stole that diamond, and never intended to steal it. If it had not been for the detective, the diamond would have been there yet. I ask for mercy on account of my baby." A sentence of five years in the penitentiary, with hard labor, which is only two years less than the maximum, was imposed, the court entirely disregarding the jury's recommendation of leniency. Judge Sutton declared his conviction that the woman belonged to a band of thieves, which must be broken up.

Longs for the Age of Mince Pie.

Chicago, July 7.—America's climate, regarded by scientists as the prime factor in the country's marvelous growth from colonial days, may be the cause of its degeneracy, according to Professor John Mason Tyler, of Amherst College. "Every decade," he explained to students at the University of Chicago yesterday, opening a series of lectures, "our climate has been drawing the strings on our nervous system tighter, until now they are ready to snap." Physical degeneration was noticeable now in the children of the business and professional men, he asserted. "Americans a hundred years ago," he said, "lived on pork and doughnuts to a great extent. Before going to bed they were not satisfied unless they ate a large piece of mince pie. We say today, 'What a barbarous bill of fare!'—we who can't stand anything stronger than tea and crackers."

Barrels of Confiscated Revolvers.

New York July 7.— Of 401 prisoners in the city police court Thursday charged with firing revolvers on the Fourth of July, 191 were fined $817 in the aggregate, and six were held for further examination. Magistrate Walsh's fines in Westchester Court were $1 each, while the luckless ones on the lowest east side had to pay $10 each to Magistrate Wahles. On the upper east side Magistrate Whitman fixed the fines at $3 each, and in the West Side Court Magistrate Finelite made it $5. In Harlem Court Magistrate Baker discharged most of the prisoners, saying the confiscation of their weapons was punishment enough. The property clerks at headquarters received several barrels filled with confiscated revolvers for the next police sale.

Notified of Nomination.

Philadelphia, July 7.—On the piazza of his home at Oak Lane at 2 o'clock this afternoon former Mayor Edwin S. Stuart, of this city, received from the hands of Congressman Martin L. Olmsted, chairman of the recent State convention, the official notification of his nomination by the republican party for Governor. Mayor Stuart made a suitable response.

County Assessor Waylaid.

J. W. Coulter, of Leslie S. D., Assessor of Stanley County, relates the following: "I was waylaid by a complication of throat and lung troubles, bronchitis, asthma and a terrible cough, which had affected me for years, when I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. Relief came almost immediately, and in a short time a permanent cure resulted." No other medicine compares with it as a sure and quick cure for coughs and colds. It cures after all other remedies have failed. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons', drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Tribute to Chamberlain.

Birmingham, Eng., July 7.—A remarkable tribute to the right Hon. Jos. Chamberlain, former Secretary of State for the colonies, is being held in this, his native, city today. The whole populace is joining in celebrating the seventieth anniversary of Mr. Chamberlain's birth. The programme began with a civic reception by the mayor, followed by a luncheon, after which Mr. Chamberlain headed a triumphal street procession. When the procession disbanded the people visited the various city parks where entertainments were held, followed by fireworks. The festivities will be continued on Monday, on which day the principal event will be a torchlight procession. The town is beautifully decorated. No such tribute has been paid to a British statesman in many years.

A pathetic incident marked the luncheon in Mr. Chamberlain's honor. When he started to reply to the toast offered to his health he broke down and wept. He was able only to recover partial mastery of himself during the balance of his speech. The incident deeply impressed all those present as indicating that Mr. Chamberlain's strenght is failing, and it will probably not be possible for him to continue as the active leader of the protectionists much longer.

San Francisco, July 7.—William Randolph Hearst, the New York Congressman and editor, has declared himself out of the presidential race for 1908. Mr. Hearst says: "I would like to state very positively that I am not a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination in 1908. Mr. Bryan said the other day that there were others besides himself who had claims on the nomination through services rendered the democratic party and mentioned pleasantly Mr. Folk, Mr. Bailey and myself. While appreciating Mr. Bryan's compliment, I must decline to be considered a candidate. Let the list stand, if Mr. Bryan pleases, Bryan or Folk or Bailey. For my part, I would substitute Stevenson for Bailey."

Died in Norway.

Boston July 7.—The death is announced from Bodo, Norway, of Mrs. Alice W. Jones, of Boston, on July 5. Mrs. Jones was the sister of Hamilton McK. Twombley, whose son was drowned Thursday in Holderness, N. H., and the widow of Frank M. Jones. Mr. Jones was a prominent Boston man. Since Mr. Jones's death in 1900, however, his widow spent much of her time traveling abroad with her two daughters. Mrs. Jones was supposed to be in the best of health.

Secretary Taft and the President.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 7.—Secretary of War Taft was in conference with the President for an hour or so this morning. Matters relative to the Panama canal, the army, and the Philippines were discussed at considerable length, and, before leaving Sagamore Hill, Secretary Taft showed the President a draft of the speech he is to make at Greensboro, N. C., next Monday night.

Secretary Taft will speak before the Ohio Bar Association at Put-in-Bay, on July 11. On the 16th of July the Secretary will come down to Oyster Bay for another conference with the President and immediately after that visit will go to Murray Bay, Canada, for his vacation.

"Prophecies" of an Evangelist.

Reading, Pa., July 7.—Rupert D. Griffith, a New England evangelist, addressed a large audience last evening on "The Restoration of the Literal Israel." After his talk on the subject he solicited questions on any topic whatever. He predicted that no power on earth could keep W. R. Hearst from becoming the next governor of New York, and that Emery, the fusion nominee, would be elected governor of Pennsylvania.

Men to Wear Shirtwaists in Church.

Knoxville, Tenn., July 7.—To increase the attendance of young men at Sunday school and church services during the hot weather, Rev. Dr. W. A. Atchley, of the Broadway Baptist Church, this city, has issued an invitation, to take effect tomorrow, to all men to attend services wearing shirt-waists and without coats. Dr. Atchley hopes to increase the attendance 50 per cent by this method.

It is always well to have a box of salve in the house. Sunburn, cuts, bruises, piles and boils yield to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Seven balloons started today in a race over London from the grounds of the Aero Club of Ranelagh. Prominent society leaders occupied places as passengers in all balloons.

George Scott one of the three negroes mutineers on the Philadelphia schooner Harry Burwind, when hanged at Wilmington, N. C., last evening, exonerated the other two men under sentence of death, to be hanged next month.

The President this afternoon appointed to a place on the Interstate Commerce Commission, E. E. Clark, Grand Chief of the Order of Railroad Conductors. Mr. Clark was a member of the Anthracite Coal Commission which settled the coal strike three years ago.

George Slavich, a Pole, of Eakley, died this morning at Freeland, Pa., as the result of an assault made on him July 4. Slavich became mixed up in a row started by independence day celebrants. The identity of his assailants has not been established.

Interesting Case in District Court.

In the United States District Court Monday, Judge Waddill heard lengthy argument on a demurrer to the bill in the case of Boyd M. Smith against the Fidelity and Guaranty Company of New York. This is a famous case that was removed, under the revised statutes of the United States, from the Circuit Court of Louisa county to the United States District Court. The argument on the demurrer Monday was practically the beginning of the litigation in this court. The case involves the sum of $400,000, or the supposed value of the barytes mines in Louisa county. The plaintiff was represented by W. L. Gibb, of Louisa, and A. L. Holliday, of Richmond. Hon. J. R. Caton, of Alexandria, appeared for the defendants. Judge Waddill took the papers, reserving his decision of the demurrer.—[Richmond Times-Dispatch.

A Midsummer Market.

There was an abundance of seasonable vegetables and fruit in market this morning and considerable animation was noticeable in the court where country people exhibit their products. Butter sold at from 25 to 30 cents a pound, eggs 20a22 cents a dozen and chickens at 75 cents a pair. The market was apparently overstocked with vegetables. Cabbage, however, were stiffer in price and sold at from 5 to 10 cents a head; cucumbers 2 cents each or 3 for 5; beets 3 cents a bunch; green peas 8 cents a quarter of a peck; snap beans 5; tomatoes 15 cents a box; green corn 20 cents a dozen; carrots 3 cents a bunch; cymlings 15 cents a dozen; onions 2 cents a bunch; potatoes 10 cents a quarter of a peck; rhubarb 4 cents a bunch; radishes 2 to 5 cents a bunch. There was an abundance of blackberries on exhibition. They sold at 5a7 cents a quart, or 40 cents per bucket. Huckleberries 15 cents; cherries 10 cents; gooseberries 5 cents; raspberries 15 cents; apples 5 cents a quarter of a peck; peaches 10 cents a box; plums 8 cents a box; honey 15 cents a pound. The supply of fish was limited, but equal to the demand. Bluefish and rockfish were quoted at 12½ cents a pound; halibut 20 cents and trout at 10 cents. Prices of meats were unchanged. There were some attractive flowers on the benches.

The Proposed Apartment House

At a meeting last night in the rooms of the Business Men's League of citizens interested in the movement for the erection of an apartment house in this city the following directors were elected:

Messrs. W. B. Smoot, Gardner L. Boothe, M. B. Harlow, Saml. H. Lunt, Henry Baader, E. E. Downham and C. C. Leadbeater.

There will be a special meeting at the rooms of the Business Men's League of the directors on next Monday night at 8 o'clock to make all necessary arrangements for the completion of the apartment House.

The State Corporation Commission yesterday granted a charter to Alexandria Apartment House Company (Incorporated), Alexandria. J. M. Hill, president; W. A. Smoot, jr., vice-president, Alexandria; Henry J. Baluvelt, secretary; George W. White, treasurer, Washington, D. C. Capital, $150,000.

Installation of Officers.

An interesting meeting of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., was held last night. The following officers were installed by Deputy Grand Master J. T. Watkins:

J. R. Mansfield, noble grand; C. E. Hawkins, vice grand; W. W. Sherwood, recording secretary; W. E. Latham, financial secretary; L. M. Davis, treasurer; N. Williamson, warden; C. H. Davis, conductor; W. A. Conway, inside guardian; J. J. Minor, outside guardian; F. Kaus, R. S. to N. grand; W. H. Yates, L. S. to N. grand; W. E. Latham, jr, R. S. to vice grand; W. F. Risden, L. S to vice grand; E. Lyles, chaplain; J. W. Wills, R. S supporter, vice grand; H. Arnold, L. S. supporter, vice grand; A. J. Hall, sitting past grand.

The Ice Supply.

The ice famine in Washington is temporarily relieved by the arrival of the four-masted schooner Alice Holbrook from the Kennebec river with a cargo of 980 tons of ice, and another four-masted schooner, laden with ice to the extent of 1,800 tons, is reported as having passed the Capes of the Chesapeake early this morning. These two schooners will relieve the scarcity of ice for at least a week, and possibly a fortnight, and during that time an ample supply of ice is expected to arrive.

Struck With a Bottle.

A colored man named Andrew Lomax appeared at the station house this morning with his face and forehead covered with blood and stated that James Fegan, who conducts a loon in the northeastern section of the city, had struck him with a bottle. Officer Beach later arrested Fegan, and later released on security for his appearance. Lomax was attended by Dr. Warfield who found that his injuries were not dangerous. Fegan at the trial will be represented by Mr. L. H. Machen.

Personal.

Mr. W. H. Lambert has returned from a visit to St. Louis.

Mrs. E. H. Kemper and children are spending the summer at Markham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ireland, of San Francisco, Cal., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. A. T. Schoeni, 208 south Lee street.

Miss Lula G. Watkins, of West End, sailed today from New York with a party of friends on the White Star line steamer Romanic for Naples, where she will spend the next three months.

Judge Norton has gone to Charlottesville to attend a meeting of the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia.

S. H. Dudley's Jolly Ethiopians.

S. H. Dudley's Jolly Ethiopians will be in Alexandria one week beginning July 9th. The company consist of forty colored women and men, widely experienced performers. S. H. Dudley, one of the foremost colored comedians on the American stage, has secured the services of Salem Tutt Whitney, the Hoosier Comedian, to head this eggregation of talent. Cultivated singers, artistic dancers, funny comedians and efficient musicians will be seen and heard at their best. Their mammoth waterproof opera tent has a seating capacity for 2,500 persons Watch for the grand street parade. Miss Nettie Taylor, the great cornetist will give free concerts at the show grounds, at 18.20 and 7.15 daily

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A white man, arrested by Officer Jones under the vagrant act, was sent to jail for 10 days.

J. R. Dean, arrested by Officer Ferguson charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Isaiah Clark and Aaron Harris, colored, arrested by Officer Jones charged with gambling, were fined $2 each.

James Johnson, John Washington, Edward Clark, Calvert Cole and Frederick Thomas, all colored, arrested by Officers Smith and Bettis charged with gambling, were dismissed.

The Henry Street Track.

A joint meeting of the committees on general laws and streets was held last night to consider the action of the Washington-Southern Railway Company which has secured an injunction forbidding the City Council to institute any measures looking toward the removal of the railroad track from Henry street. The committees formulated a report, which they will submit to Council next Tuesday night, recommending that the Corporation Attorney be directed to move a dissolution of the injunction.

The railway company is now engaged in making a connection with the track northwest of this city.

Beaten and Robbed.

Among the passengers who passed through here yesterday morning on north bound passenger train No. 34 of the Southern Railway was a Washingtonian who had been unmercifully beaten and robbed at Culpeper Thursday night. He was taken to Washington and placed in a hospital for treatment. The man was asleep in a box car when he was attacked.

Will Recommend Sale of Franchise.

The committee on streets of the City Council at its meeting last night agreed to recommend to Council the sale of the franchise of the use of Cameron street from Payne to Baggett's line to the W., A. & Mt. V. Railway. It is proposed to use that street as a loop by the railway company.

New Locomotives.

The Southern Railway Company has received two new engines of the Pacific trailer pattern which will be used to pull fast freight trains. The company has also procured a locomotive of the Atlantic type which will be used for passenger trains.

Meeting of the Bar.

Judge Barley of the Corporation Court has called a meeting of the members of the bar of this city on Monday next at 10:30 o'clock to take action in regard to certain proposed repairs to the court room.

A CARD.

Alexandria, Va., July 7, 1906.

Fraternal Order of Eagles, Alva Aerie, 871.

It is my desire to give public expression to your order of my appreciation of the kindness of its members to my son, J. Frank Cook, during his sickness, and the prompt payment of the benefits accruing to the family of the deceased member. Both of these things are of a character to remind one of the injunction to "bear ye one anothers burdens," and also are practical in assisting one in the dark hours of affliction and trouble. Thanking the order most sincerely for their work I am, Very truly,

J. FRANK COOK, SR.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

William Mills, husband of Mary Mills (nee Springmann), died at his home in Washington Thursday.

A car on the electric road got off the bridge at the foot of Fourteenth street, in Washington today and caused some delay in the running of the trains.

Fletcher Jackson, colored, of Richmond, was struck by a fragment of stone while at work this morning at a stone-crusher near the jail and seriously injured. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment.

A delightful spell of cool weather has prevailed during the past three days. The temperature began to fall during the afternoon of the Fourth of July. The mercury in the thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 64°.

John Green, colored, was arrested yesterday by Constable Cornell charged with cutting Ella Kidd, also colored, in the locality known as "Sheol Bottom," in Alexandria county. Green was taken before Justice Birrell who sent him on to the grand jury.

Fried Clams 30 cents a dozen. Oysters fried, stewed or raw. Clam Soup 5c, Vegetable Soup 5c. C. H. Zimmerman, Market Space. feb 26tf

Killed by Toughs.

While going to the rescue of Mrs. Estelle Holmes, who was attacked by thugs after midnight this morning, Geo. C. Gesswin, a Baltimore saloonkeeper, was shot and mortally wounded. He died about 9 o'clock. The girl, with Harry T. Clark, had crossed from a river resort to a short cut-off to the car line in South Baltimore when the thoughs approached her and demanded that she go with them. Clark, yelling for assistance, ran toward the car line. A car happening along, Gesswin and another man jumped off and went with Clark to the girl's assistance. One of the toughs fired as the three men approached, and Gesswin fell. The gang rushed away and the girl was hurried away to her home, Gesswin being sent to a hospital. The roughs have been arrested, but the shooting has not yet been specifically traced. The prisoners gave their names as William Mackenroth, 19 years old, blacksmith; Edward Mackenroth, 18 years old, clerk; Charles A. Wicker, 17 years old, clerk; Wm. H. Wicker, 19 years old, grocer; Charles A. Johnson, 23 years old, laborer; Howard Chaney, 17 years old, laborer.

Report of Meat Committee.

The report of the joint committee of the Chicago Commercial and the Illinois Manufacturers' Associations appointed to investigate the meat packing industries of Chicago, together with the report of the experts who accompanied the committee, was made public yesterday. The committee says that meat products at the stockyards are wholesome food; that improvements are constantly being made; that Dr. Welch, of the Johns Hopkins, says it would be extravagant and absurd to condemn carcasses of cattle affected with only slight localized tuberculosis, providing the animals are otherwise in good condition; that Dr. Welch considers all reasonable demands met by the condemnation of carcasses affected with extensive active tuberculosis; that scientists differ on the subject of preservatives; that the canning departments are generally in a clean condition; that criticism is partly based upon an aesthetic sense and a popular demand that food products shall be produced in places conforming to certain somewhat vague ideals.

Bride Escaped Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crapso, of Marion, Mass., adopted a unique method to escape the carefully planned ovation of rice, confetti, old boots, and the like, engineered by the guests after the wedding ceremony at her home. Mrs. Crapso, who was Miss Georgia H. Nye, got out of the house by hiding in a large sized trunk and having herself carried out in this fashion, unnoticed by the friends who were waiting to shower both bride and groom with the bridal symbols. The trunk was placed in a waiting automobile, and, once within it, the two ushers who were in the secret quickly loosened the straps, and Mrs. Crapso's head emerged smiling. Meanwhile Mr. Crapso had hastened out by the rear door of the house and met the automobile a short distance down the road, where he got in, and he and his bride were driven to his house. The trunks for the honeymoon had previously been sent there.

Complaint of the Negro.

Speeches strongly denunciatory of the treatment of the negro in the North and South were the features of yesterday's session of the Fifty-fifth Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, at the A. M. E. Zion Church at Providence. Bishop Henry McNeil Turner complained bitterly of the degradation of the negro, due, he said, not to the negro's own in capacity, but to the malicious hatred shown by those who take every opportunity to slander and crush the race.

"This talk of the negro desiring social equality," said the Bishop, "is all rot. What we want is civil rights. This is either a nation or a sham. It is a disgrace among nations. This country is no place for our race. They should emigrate where they can establish themselves as a nation and by originality and merit win the recognition that cannot be hoped for under existing conditions."

May Live 100 Years.

The chances for living a full century are excellent in the case of Mrs Jennie Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., now 70 years old. She writes: "Electric Bitters cured me of Chronic Dyspepsia of 20 years standing, and made me feel as well and strong as a young girl." Electric Bitters cure Stomach and Liver diseases, Blood disorders, General Debility and bodily weakness. Sold on a guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price only 50c.

Origin of Words.

To Milan is owed the word "millinery," a milliner having been originally a Milaner, an importer of feminine finery from Milan, just as a "cordwainer," shoemaker, was a worker in "cordouan," leather from Cordova. It is curious to note how many words have come from the geographical names of northern Italy. There is, for instance, "florin," the coin of Florence, and "pistol," from Pistoja.

Dr. Johnson said that the word "job" was "a low word now much in use, of which I cannot tell the etymology." It is supposed to be really identical with "gob," a mouthful or morsel. Pepys records how "my lord" said to him, "I will do you all the good jobs I can," and Pepys himself speaks of Tangier as "hitherto used as a jobb to do a kindness to some lord." But the simple monosyllabic ugliness of the word was too much for Johnson.

Many words of most august sound prove to be of quite commonplace ancestry when traced to their origins. "Finance" is really only "settling up." Literally it is just "ending" and was formerly used in that very simple sense in the English language. Then it came to signify settling up with a creditor and acquired the special sense of ransom.

The Interior of the Earth.

A frequent remark is that mankind dwells on a thin crust encircling a molten mass and that the journey of life is practically on a fire ball incased in a fragile shell that has cooled and that, as it cools further, contracts with earthquake shocks. Much virtue in rhetoric, if the purpose is to elevate the hair and induce cold thrills and gooseflesh. The internal fire of the earth is an inference and, in any large sense, historically harmless if true. Persons who worry over cosmic problems might also keep awake of nights over the palpable truth that the earth moves through space without any visible means of support. On the planet are the plain marks of epochs of ice as well as of intense heat. Scientists agree that glacial ages will come again, but geology teaches that they are gradual and of limited extent geographically. — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Microscopic Writing.

Thackeray could write the Lord's Prayer on a sixpence, which is the size of a dime, but it is now possible to write the prayer on a surface so small that one grain of sand would hide it completely. Microscopists sell copies of the Lord's Prayer written in a circle only the five-hundredth part of an inch in diameter. To read the prayer it is necessary to use a lens magnifying 500 times. Writing so incredibly small is accomplished by means of levers six feet long. These levers are so adjusted that the motion is gradually lessened as it travels along them till, when it reaches the delicate end, armed with a minute diamond pen that rests on a glass surface, it causes the pen to register on the glass writing so small as to be invisible.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A British Blunder.

There is an old story of the foreign office in connection with the small French colony of Chandernagore. This tiny possession is situated on the Hooghly, twenty-one miles from Calcutta. It extends two miles along the river and one and a half miles inland from it. During our wars with France the settlement was taken and added to our dependency, but when terms of peace were arranged our minister of foreign affairs, in total ignorance of its position and of the importance of its retention, agreed to its being restored to France. It turned out that he thought it was a small island in the West Indies and of no consequence!—Westminster Gazette.

Cinderella of the Canary Islands.

Hierros can hardly be called, although nominally entitled, one of the "fortunate isles." It is the Cinderella of the Canary group, and in its southwesterly isolation may be said to live on fog. But for the mists that drench its shores the little island would die of thirst, and no vegetables could be sent to market. Its western promontory, Debas, once enjoyed celebrity as the spot through which was drawn the first universal meridian.

Blessings of Work.

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day which must be done, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work and forced to do your best will breed in you temperance, self control, diligence, strength of will, content and a hundred virtues which the idle will never know.—Charles Kingsley.

Business Education.

Nothing will stand you in better stead in the hard, cold, practical, everyday world than a good, sound business education. You will find that your success in trade, occupation or profession will depend as much on your general knowledge of men and affairs as on your technical training.—Success Magazine.

Try a little KODAL FOR DYSPEPSIA after your meals. Many stomachs are overworked to the point where they refuse to go further. NOTICE.—An agreement have been entered into on the 30th day of April, 1906, by and between the heirs and distributees of the late Taylor W. Blunt, of Fairfax county, Virginia, whereby Henry H. Blunt and Charles T. Blunt were appointed trustees to collect any and all moneys due the estate of the said Taylor Blunt, to dispose of the property, real and personal, of the said Taylor W. Blunt, and to pass title to the same; to collect the proceeds of the sale of said property, and to settle the just indebtedness of the said Taylor W. Blunt.

Now, therefore, this is to notify the public that all persons who owe money to said Taylor W. Blunt or his estate must pay the same to the said trustees, and all persons having valid and just claims against said Taylor W. Blunt to present the same to said trustees for settlement, the same to be properly verified, and that the said trustees will sell privately any and all of the said property of said Taylor W. Blunt up to and prior to 19TH DAY OF JULY, 1906, and that on the said day they will expose to public sale all of the property, real and personal, of said Taylor W. Blunt then undisposed of, and, if all of said property is not disposed of on that day the remaining property will be sold on the days following until sold in toto. The property and estate of said Taylor W. Blunt consists of a farm of about 200 acres, lying near Gum Spring, Mt. Vernon magisterial district, Fairfax county, Va.; 2 head of horses, several head of cattle, 54 head of sheep and lambs, 33 head of hogs, a lot of fowls, farming implements and utensils, farming machinery, household furniture and goods and sundry articles of personal property, lumber, posts, field of standing grass, field of standing wheat, lot of hay, lot of corn, and numerous other articles used on a large well-managed farm.

The said farm is well fenced and watered and is near the Washington Alexandria & Mt. Vernon Electric Railway. Terms made known on day of sale.
